DESCRIPTION

You can solder! Adafruit offers a fun and exciting "badges" of achievement for electronics, science and engineering. We believe everyone should be able to be rewarded for learning a useful skill, a badge is just one of the many ways to show and share.

This is the "I learned to solder" badge for use with educators, classrooms, workshops, Maker Faires, TechShops, Hackerspaces, Makerspaces and around the world to reward beginners on their skill building journey!

This beautiful badge is made in the USA and has subtle details like metallic thread.

The badge is skillfully designed and sturdily made to last a life time, the backing is iron-on but the badge can also be sewn on.
