

THSCM101

Go to FAQ for this product

FAQ

Purchase Samples

Buy at Digi-Key ↗

Overview

Plug and play 13M pixel PDAF Linux camera with many image function and high image quality for i.MX 8M family

Lean more

13M pixel PDAF Linux Camera (THSCM101) for i.MX 8M family – THine Solutions

Related Products

- ▶ Camera Development Kit
- ▶ Image Signal Processor
- ▶ THSCU101
- ▶ THSCP101
- ▶ THSCJ101

Back to Camera Systems

Support/Contact Us

Download documents

Products FAQ

BUY

Sales base

Contact Us

Interface to the Future

- Solution by Smart Connectivity -

THine Electronics, Inc. English ▼

| Products         | Applications        |                     | Support                                  | THine Value           | Download documents |
|------------------|---------------------|---------------------|------------------------------------------|-----------------------|--------------------|
| Interface        | FA                  | Education           | Buy                                      |                       | News               |
| Power            | Consumer            | Security            | Products FAQ                             | Corporate Information |                    |
| LED Driver       | OA                  | Amusement equipment | Quality Policy ,Environmental Policy | IR Information        | Inquiry Form       |
| Camera Processor | Smart City/Commerce | Medical             |                                          | Careers               |                    |
| Others           | Automotive          |                     |                                          |                       |                    |
| Kit Solutions    |                     |                     |                                          |                       |                    |
| AI&IoT Solution  |                     |                     |                                          |                       |                    |