ok this is hard to photograph, but I took some glow-in-the-dark fabric paint, and put a layer over the white print on the hoodie, lights up fantastic in the dark (as seen at the recent Warren Miller movie)

So if I may respectfully suggest, IMHO all SparkFun clothing should be using GITD printing. I know I'd pay the premium!

cheers

In 2003, CU student Nate Seidle blew a power supply in his dorm room and, in lieu of a way to order easy replacements, decided to start his own company. Since then, SparkFun has been committed to sustainably helping our world achieve electronics literacy from our headquarters in Boulder, Colorado.

No matter your vision, SparkFun's products and resources are designed to make the world of electronics more accessible. In addition to over 2,000 open source components and widgets, SparkFun offers curriculum, training and online tutorials designed to help demystify the wonderful world of embedded electronics. We're here to help you start something.
